Speaker Biography

David Duguid MP

David James Duguid MP is a Scottish Conservative Party politician who has been the Member of Parliament for Banff and Buchan since June 2017.

David lives in Turriff with his wife, Rose and their two young children. He attended school in Macduff and Banff before going to university in Aberdeen.

As well as 25 years' experience in the oil and gas business, David has a passion for the development of traditional industries in Banff and Buchan - particularly fishing and farming. He has lived and worked in Angola, Azerbaijan, Canada, Denmark and Venezuela.

Since being elected David has become involved in various issues such as 22q11.2 Deletion Syndrome, rural broadband and town regeneration.

His political interests include fisheries, agriculture and the production of food and drink in general; the energy industry - conventional and non-conventional means of power generation; tourism in Scotland - particularly in areas that would benefit from development/regeneration.
