

“The fight to save Blake Lane Park is about so much more than maintaining a place for dogs to run free; it is about preserving a refuge for the entire community—and a way of life—from the unmitigated development that has overtaken the park’s surroundings. For the sake of our children, we must do all we can to conserve Blake Lane and all remaining parkland throughout our county.”

-Ryan McElveen, Member at-large, Fairfax County School Board