Call of SFRR-E honorary lectures for the SFRR-E Vienna Meeting 2023

Dear colleagues,

We are inviting the submission of nominations for the following SFRR-E honorary lectures to be presented at the SFRR-E Meeting 2022 titled “Redox Biology in Translation”, which will take place in Vienna, Austria, on the 6th – 9th June 2023.

- SFRR-E Annual Award Lecture
- SFRR-Europe Basic Science Award Lecture
- SFRR-Europe Clinical Science Award Lecture
- SFRR-E Catherine Pasquier Memorial Lecture
- SFRR-E Leopold Flohé Redox Pioneer Young Investigator Award

Only current members of SFRR-E are able to submit nominations for special lectures, and must login into the member area of the SFRR-E website (<https://www.sfrr-europe.org/>) and select the option “Call for Honorary Lectures for SFRR-E Vienna Meeting 2023” in the menu on the left. Nominations should be submitted before or by the deadline of 31st October 2022 as a PDF file using the word templates available when you log in to the member area of the SFRR-E website. Please find enclosed the guidelines for these honorary lectures.

An International Scientific Advisory Board will evaluate all nominations and the SFRR-E Executive will then select nominees with the highest rankings.

Thank you for your active collaboration with SFRR-E.

Best regards,

Clare Hawkins
General Secretary of SFRR-Europe
