Hello, friends around the world! My name is Hideki Iizuka. I am a certified English-speaking tour guide, and I hold a Master's from the University of Bath in the UK and a Ph.D. in English studies. Currently, I teach English at a university and also perform as a musician in Tokyo.

Globalization is spreading across the world at an unprecedented speed, leading to the loss of unique identities in many countries, and Japan is no exception. Before this rich culture fades away, I want to guide you to places that truly embody the essence of Japan. Let me take you to authentic spots in Nikko in Tochigi Prefecture, including places that are often difficult for overseas travelers to access. With a private minivan, I ensure a comfortable trip without the hassle of carrying luggage. Afterward, I'll take you to your preferred places for dinner or drinks.

Please do contact me, and let's design a trip together.
