

LPT at LTB112: Data protection, confidentiality and privacy agreement with acceptance of data storage according to DSGVO and CAA regulations

To process your language proficiency test in accordance with the applicable aviation authorities regulations, persons and organizations named below need access to:

- ✓ Your name, date/place of birth, flight crew license details, contact address, phone number and your email (to send the result of the test), mother tongue
- ✓ Audio recordings of your test and a photo screenshot of you and your passport in case of remote testing
- ✓ A photocopy of your passport or Photo ID for identification reasons in case of remote testing

The language assessment body LTB112 will process your language test.

Information on data usage, audio material etc. after the test:

Once the LPE provides the LTB112 with your data and audio recordings, the language assessment body treats your data and the audio recordings in accordance with all applicable regulations on the protection of personal data. They will not be published nor given to unauthorized third parties but only to the mentioned below:

Only the following persons will have access to your data:

- ✓ One or more linguistic and operational experts who will assign your final result. Usually, the result will be determined by your LPE and one LPLE after the test. In exceptional cases (e.g. when there is a mismatch between the result of the LPE and the LPLE) more raters will be assigned by the LAB.
- ✓ The head of the language assessment body
- ✓ Technicians (e.g. server administrators) responsible for data storage
- ✓ Anonymized extracts may be used during language examiner standardization courses
- ✓ In accordance with FCL.1030, the Austrian civil aviation authority Austro Control GmbH, as the authority responsible for LAB oversight
- ✓ In accordance with FCL.1030, the civil aviation authority that issued or will issue your FCL license

Regarding your personal data stored by LTB112, you have the right to be informed what data we have and use, right of access or rectification. If you inquire further information about that, please contact the Head of LTB112 anita.heiglauer@theenglishzone.at. Please note that we are required by law to store your test details for the period of 7 years and therefore you won't have a right to erasure, right to restrict processing or right to object, once you decide to take this test.

Confidentiality and non disclosure agreement:
