President's Report:

We mixed it up a bit on last week's zoom meeting, including a visit from secretary Pete Richards, from his bed at the rehab hospital following recent ankle surgery. While some weeks off from dancing around the room, he seems like he's in his usual good spirits. We also learned a little more about Phil Tang who was visiting us for a third zoom meeting. Our 1970s trivia quiz proved to be a little easier than the 1980s for our members, with some much better scores this time around. Warwick took out the prize this week and is no doubt anxiously awaiting our return to the international to discover what wonderful prize he has one.

Monday night this week, we have our last board meeting for the 2019/2020 year, so there will be a little more to report on at Wednesdays zoom. I am writing this on Monday morning and it is exactly one month to our changeover on July 1. While the momentum for our club, as it has for all others, has slowed with Covid-19, I remain grateful for all the support and commitment that the members of shown throughout the past 11 months.

Please remember, reports and photos for the clubs annual report are due in by June 7. The ever reliable Roscoe has already delivered his directors report, and I look forward to receiving all the others ahead of time!

See you Wednesday morning 7:45 AM on zoom!

Regards

Peter

In this space:

Hope these bring you a laugh.

My friend thinks he is smart. He told me an onion is the only food that makes you cry, so I threw a coconut at his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown had two sons. One was named Mind Your Own Business & the other was named Trouble. One day the two boys decided to play hide and seek. Trouble hid while Mind Your Own Business counted to one hundred. Mind Your Own Business began looking for his brother behind garbage cans and bushes. Then he started looking in and under cars until a police man approached him and asked, "What are you doing?" "Playing a game," the boy replied. "What is your name?" the officer questioned. "Mind Your Own Business." Furious the policeman inquired, "Are you looking for trouble?!" The boy replied, "Why, yes."

A boy asks his father, "Dad, are bugs good to eat?" "That's disgusting. Don't talk about things like that over dinner," the dad replies. After dinner the father asks, "Now, son, what did you want to ask me?" "Oh, nothing," the boy says. "There was a bug in your soup, but now it's gone."

In a Catholic school cafeteria, a nun places a note in front of a pile of apples, "Only take one. God is watching." Further down the line is a pile of cookies. A little boy makes his own note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

Instead of "the John," I call my toilet "the Jim." That way it sounds better when I say I go to the Jim first thing every morning.

There was an elderly couple who in their old age noticed that they were getting a lot more forgetful, so they decided to go to the doctor. The doctor told them that they should start writing things down so they don't forget. They went home and the old lady told her husband to get her a bowl of ice cream. "You might want to write it down," she said. The husband said, "No, I can remember that you want a bowl of ice cream." She then told her husband she wanted a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream. "Write it down," she told him, and again he said, "No, no, I can remember: you want a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream." Then the old lady said she wants a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream and a cherry on top. "Write it down," she told her husband and again he said, "No, I got it. You want a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream and a cherry on top." So he goes to get the ice cream and spends an unusually long time in the kitchen, over 30 minutes. He comes out to his wife and hands her a plate of eggs and bacon. The old wife stares at the plate for a moment, then looks at her husband and asks, "Where's the toast?"

Q: Why did the can crusher quit his job?

A: Because it was soda pressing.

My friend told me he had the body of a Greek god.

I had to explain to him that Buddha is not Greek.

Steps to success

1. Commit to the challenge

Secure your treadmill by registering a team. The Corporate sponsorship of $1,000 covers the cost of the event, which means that 100% of your team's fundraising efforts will go directly to helping children in 24 hour care at Very Special Kids Hospice.

2. Choose your fearless leader

The Team Captain will work closely with Rotary Frankston Sunrise and take charge of your teams' activities to guide the group towards the team fundraising goal.

3. Build your team of Participants

With 30 minute time slots to fill over the 12 hours, a team of up to 24 fundraising foot soldiers will help complete the challenge. Walking is an option for those who prefer a steadier pace.

4. Enlist the support of family and friends

Participants should ask for sponsors to help reach your fundraising goal. Set up your own personal online fundraising page at <https://vsk.grassrootz.com/rotary-frankston-sunrise-12-hr-treadmill-challenge> and share with family and friends on social media and with peer networks.

5. Enjoy the event

Run or walk with your heart and celebrate in the camaraderie with like-minded people who are all taking on the challenge to raise funds for children with life-threatening conditions.

All teams receive 4 x 1 Month All Club Team Training Memberships valued at $199 to help you prepare for the challenge*

To all members of Rotary District 9820 :

Janne Speirs - Emergency Management Chair - is calling out for knitted goods. Obviously as the weather cools, the need for warm clothes is increasing!

What is needed: Knitted or purchased through clubs - Adult beanies, scarves in football team colours, children's knits (2 through to 10 year olds) or even 'fashion' scarves. There doesn't seem to be a huge call for babywear.

If you, your family or your club would like to assist in this important task - not just for its practical value but also the moral support of those who've lost so much then please get knitting and/or send your finished products to the address below.

Where: Mrs J Speirs, 218 Webbs Road, Gormandale 3873

On the Lighter Side:

Yesterday, I ate
a clock. It was very time consuming.

Especially when I went back for seconds.

Director's Reports:

Community Service -

Luke Richardson from Kananook Community Garden is going to join us for our Zoom meeting on Wednesday to give us an update re the garden.

- Director Ross A.

Youth, International and Vocational -

NYSF - We have a potential candidate for the possible NYSF in January 2021.

International - Not much happening on the International front or for that matter the nationally.

Vocation - And any vocational get togethers have been put on hold! Zoom meetings are happening.

Interact - has been postponed until at least the 3rd term.

- Director J.A.

What's going on around the club - From J.A. -

- Laurie is still waiting for his housing plans/permits

- Most members seem to be getting some sort of surgical procedure done.

- The weather has been great for golf but that has now changed. Our handicaps are slowly getting bigger and that also includes my waistline.

On the Homefront -

- Not sure if I will get my large deposit back for the cruise we booked later in the year....and do I really now want to take Jane to New York or anywhere in the USA?

- Now back at work.

- Thought of getting a dog for company, but the prices are going up and the animal welfare centre is now empty...cats, they say, may be available but there is a waiting list!

- Share tip.... I heard that Uncle Dans might be a BUY.
