

Aircraft Service Klatovy spol. s r.o. is a maintenance center established in 2007.

It is a holder of authorization for maintenance and repair of aircraft according to the regulation EASA PART 145.

We are currently focusing on the Cessna 100 series and the Short Skyvan SC-7.

Aircraft mechanic / Mechanic / Engineer

Are you interested to working with airplanes and do you have a secondary school/university education in this field or technical field? Are you a graduate or already have experience as an aircraft mechanic?

We are hiring an aircraft mechanic to join our team!

Areas of responsibility: regular aircraft maintenance, major aircraft inspections, disassembly and assembly of aircraft components, examination of aircraft systems, testing, and adjustment of components, carrying out modifications, identifying and remedying defects

Requirements: We require secondary school / apprenticeship in the field of aircraft mechanic or avionics, or other technical education, English language, organization, independence, experience to work with sheet metal advantage

We offer: responsible and attractive tasks with development opportunities in a stable corporate environment, working in a small and motivated team, food tickets, contribution to sports activities, gym and sauna on site, breakfast, team member development

Start date: immediately

Place of work: Klatovy Airport, Czech Republic

Possibility of accommodation directly at the airport (60 EUR per month during a trial period, then it becomes a benefit)

Salary: 1000-3000 EUR

A common question we get is, "Do you hire students fresh out of college?" Our answer: "YES!"

You have a passion for aircraft and technology, love challenges as well as varied activities and want to contribute to the continued success of our company, then send an application with all application documents to: office@ask.cz