

SARAH GEORGIANA

“I LOVE ME AND
WHO I AM. I DON’T
TRY TO BE ANYONE
BUT WHO I AM”

Today we are with the gorgeous and talented Sarah Georgiana. At only 12 years old this pocket rocket has shot to fame on the hit reality show "Dance Moms" which eighth season has just wrapped up. We asked Sarah what it was like the first time she found out she had been casted for the eighth season of "Dance Moms", she told us "It was overwhelming. There's a video you can see in the opening episode of season 8 of my reaction". Dancing has always been a passion of Sarah which is what ultimately got her on the show. "I always liked to dance. I started when I was two years old.

But after attending a dance convention and receiving a scholarship I was like, I know for sure I am supposed to do this and someone else saw it in me too". The sometimes villainous dance teacher Abby Lee Miller is a tough one to impress, we asked Sarah what it was like meeting the one and only Abby Lee Miller?, "I had met Abby as a fan before and had a conversation with her. So meeting her I wasn't nervous about ... but auditioning for something that would change my life was nerve wracking and I had no idea how that was going to go". Now that Sarah has a huge following with over 220,000 followers we wanted to know what she would say to her younger fans that want to start a professional dance career, she said, "Work hard, never give up. There will be 100 "no's and finally a yes ... so just stay the course". On the eighth season of "Dance Moms" Sarah's mom Michelle was portrayed as some what of a villain. For any person especially a child it's not nice to see your mom on TV being painted as a bad person. So with that in mind we asked Sarah what it was like having her mom portrayed as the "bad guy" on the show, she replied. "My mom is a great mom. She is kind and caring. I know who my mom is and I wouldn't be where I am without her".

Sarah is a very busy kid, from events to a tight filming schedule there is not much this kid has time for. So we wanted to know if in her free time

( if any ) if she could tell us about any upcoming projects she is currently working on. She told us “I’m always auditioning ... you never know”. We think that that’s a great state of mind. You can never even have a shot at something if you don’t give it a go, so keep auditioning Sarah. We know your gonna be in movies very soon. The entire planet is holding there breath as to whether there is going to be a ninth season of the hit reality show “Dance Moms”, she told us exactly what we thought she would. “I’m always auditioning ... you never know”, in other words we will just have to wait, pray and see whether this worldwide phenomenon will be returning to our screens in 2020.

Now with fame always come hate. Being a 12 year old we would have thought that the haters would’ve gotten to Sarah. We couldn’t have been more wrong. We asked Sarah what she would say to her haters and she responded with. “ I love me and who I am. I don’t try to be anyone but who I am. I grow and learn everyday. I’m not perfect and don’t pretend to be. I just learn from my mistakes and continue to grow”. That is one of the most mature approaches to that kind of thing we have ever heard, go Sarah! There has been a lot of circulation in the past whether the Dance Moms competitions are real or staged. Across every season this has been an ongoing topic of discussion surrounding the show. So who better to ask than one of the cast members of the show. “There are judges who score and present the awards. We find out the winners just like everyone else”. Sarah wasn’t the first dancer in her family, dancing actually runs though her family. She told us “My cousin was a Rockette; another cousin was a dancer and teaches dance and my mom danced (just not competitively) she was a good tapper”. Now as this interview comes to a close we of course have to do our infamous “Fan Speed Round” where you, the fans get to ask anything of the star in this case Sarah and she answers. The only way to put in your questions is to keep up with our Instagram stories on @teentalentmagazine! We want to say a huge thank you to Sarah and have loved chatting to her.

FAN SPEED ROUND

What’s your fav dance you did this season?

Shame, body and soul, blue bloods

What’s your favourite dance trick?

I’m always working on new tricks... can’t wait to show the new things I’m working on

What are your fav stores to shop at?

Zara, forever 21, H&M, SHEIN

What’s your favourite colour?

Tiffany blue

SARAH GEORGLIANA

I'M NOT PERFECT AND DON'T PRETEND TO BE