What is GZOOH KITCHENS

GzooH Kitchens are virtual kitchens that operate globally.

GzooH Kitchens franchises several food brands spanning different cuisines and creative food cultures within one kitchen.

Owning and operating GzooH Kitchens allows you to:

Launch in two weeks = get your GzooH Kitchens going quicker with lower start-up costs because time is money.

Choose your own hours = flexibility in life and work.

Hire minimal staff (e.g. no wait staff) = lower labour cost.

Operate with less space = low rent.

Offer several concepts under one roof that can be modified over time = attracting more customers and greater potential for more revenue.

Virtual kitchens together with online delivery platforms are changing the food business for the better.

Get into the food business and operate GzooH Kitchens brands.

Starting from scratch?

We assist you in finding a location and work with you on the initial set-up and launch of GzooH Kitchens brands and provide ongoing support and consultation during operations (Phases I, II, III).

Operate GzooH Kitchens brands out of your existing food business location.

Do you have an existing location? We work with you on the initial set-up and launch of GzooH Kitchens brands and provide ongoing support and consultation during operations (Phases II, III).

Phase I: Location Study

- Research and advise on potential locations and commercial space for sale/lease.

Phase II: Set-up and Launch

- Market research and analysis of the local food scene to determine the most suitable brands for your location.

- Assess existing equipment and layout needed at your location and determine gaps to be addressed.

- Set-up delivery platforms / kitchen and source food vendors.

- Training on preparing food items and managing inventory.

Phase III: Operation

- Analyze sales data for the performance of each brand and suggest updates and changes to test new markets and increase revenue.

- Ongoing support and consultation for updates to brands and delivery platforms as well as food vendor relationships and training as required.

When you include GzooH Kitchens brands in your existing business you have a new & efficient revenue stream.
