President's Report:

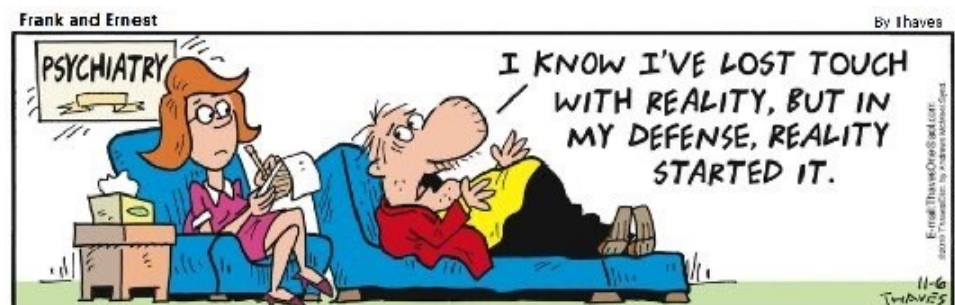

Another excellent guest speaker last week. It was an inspiring presentation by Gail Foster, the CEO of Focus Individualised Support Services. Many of you will remember the inspirational performance of the Focus clients who participated in and raised money for our Treadmill Challenge in support of Very Special Kids. Last week we were able to learn more about the great work being done by Gail and her team in supporting and providing outstanding living environments for people with disability. Focus is an organisation we are keen to build our relationship with into the future. Stay tuned...

This week's speaker will be a little different as we climb aboard with Ross L and hear the inside story of the adventures on the high seas (well Bass Strait anyway) of he, Ron and Bruce. Let's make sure breakfast is out of the way first!

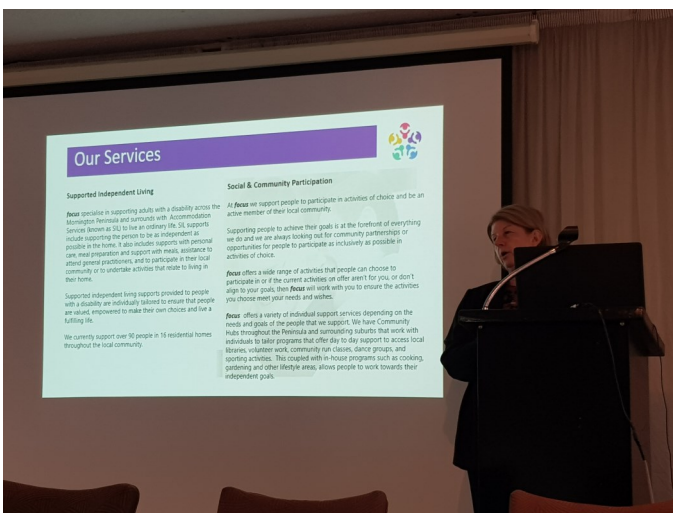

Very sorry to hear of the passing of Carolyn Feldgen's father this week. Our sympathies are with Carolyn, Rainer and family.

Don't forget Wednesday week (Sept 27) there is no morning meeting as we will be at the Two Brother brewery for a fellowship night that day. Dave Morgan is co-ordinating attendance. Make sure you have let him know you will be there.

See you Wednesday,
Peter

We Are Launching An Interact Club

Early 2020, in a joint venture between Rotary Frankston Sunrise and Peninsula Rotaract, we will launch an Interact Club at Frankston High School!

So what is Interact?

Interact is a key part of Rotary's Youth Programs and is a service club for youth aged 13-18 who want to engage in community service while having fun. There are more than 20,000 Interact Clubs operating in 159 countries around the world.

Students design and implement two projects each year: one for their school or local community, and one that promotes international understanding.

The students run the Club and will make their own decisions as to the projects they undertake. As sponsors of the club, Rotary and Rotaract will act as mentors. The Interact Club will meet 2 lunch times per month at meetings attended by a Rotarian & Rotaract mentor.

For the students, this is a great opportunity to make a difference both locally and internationally. They will develop leadership and organisational skills. They will have the ability to connect with the Rotary & Rotaract network around the world and to engage with Interact Clubs across the globe. It will expand their understanding of issues here and abroad and dovetails in well with the school's overall leadership development agenda. The enthusiastic response received from Frankston High and Principal John Albiston bodes well for the future of Interact at the school.

For the Rotaract Club, it continues to support their own development as community leaders and introduces them and engages them with prospective future Rotaractors. For us at Rotary Frankston Sunrise, it is a great opportunity to engage with emerging young people in the area. It opens a connection with the broader school community and extends our impact both here and abroad.

So preparations for the launch are underway, with an announcement to be made to the students at key assemblies on November 28. The formal launch of the club will happen in late February, early March 2020.

If you would like to get involved, speak to Peter Cracknell!

The Rotary Clubs of Australia

The combined Rotary Districts of Australia have coordinated a 2019 National Fundraiser to provide much needed incremental funds from the public and Corporates around Australia. This should not be confused with RAWCS who are distributing Government Funds. The 2019 National Fundraiser will be an incredible Public Relations opportunity for our membership and Clubs.

The public and Corporate funds will be managed by the DGs via an Appeal Distribution Committee. Rotary Districts in drought affected areas will work with Clubs to identify persons / families in need of assistance; such as food, education supplies, health services, clothing etc. The Districts will compile a Register of persons/families in need of assistance. Each District will then request a block grant via the Bendigo Bank on-line portal which will be processed by a Grants Advisory Committee. Our D9820 Governor Adrian Froggatt is a member of the Appeal Distribution Committee.

Donations can be made at www.bendigobank.com.au/rotarydrought or via the Let it Pour link shown above.
