

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF JOAN OF ARC

Joan of Arc and French troops entered the city on 29 April 1429 and drove the English out from the siege of Orléans on 8 May 1429. The history of the city is inseparable from that which marked a turning point in the Hundred Years War. Orléans has always kept the memory of her time there... For a day, go back in time and follow in the footsteps of Joan of Arc...
