

If you have any concerns about your residence status (VISA) or daily life, please feel free to contact us.

Consultation is leave it to me
please!

Please come for a consultation.

- Regarding changes and renewals of residence status.
- About international marriage procedures.
- About procedures when a child is born.
- I want to open a company or shop.
- About your child's school.
- About work and interpersonal relationships at work.
etc.

We will contribute to the local community with the power of social work and legal affairs.

For foreign residents and employees, in addition to providing consultation regarding their immigration status, we also provide consultation regarding any problems they may have while living at home or in the community. Please feel free to contact us with any details.
