

On this page you will find more information about our

EU Youth4Health partner:

Avempace

Avempace is a non-profit organization, founded in February 2017. Its aim is to support students with their academic journey, from their entry to university, to their discovery of the workplace. Avempace includes a President, a Vice-President, a secretary, and a treasurer (all of them are unpaid).

<https://www.avempacebrussels.com/>

Cesie

CESIE is committed to promote the cultural, social, educational and economic development at local, national, European and international levels. CESIE contributes to growth and development through the active participation of people, civil society and institutions, always valuing diversity. Inspired by the work of Danilo Dolci, we focus our work on the research of social needs and challenges and the use of innovative learning approaches.

<https://cesie.org/en/>

Idec

IDEC from Greece is a leading management consulting company able to integrate best practices from the business sector to the educational sector. In its 30 years of activity, it has achieved a combination of experience and know-how that is constantly enriched with the ideas and innovations of its new partners. IDEC has a wide range of specificity and products in different subjects. Its always customer-oriented approach offers a unique set of integrated services and contributes to building a modern business future.

<https://idec.gr/>

Die Berater

We are a leading consulting company with a focus on education and training. We offer holistic management consulting, coach employees and executives and specialize in personality, language and IT training.

Our range of services is aimed at private individuals, companies in all industries and of all sizes, and the public sector, such as the Public Employment Service, ministries, the European Commission, and the entire education system.

<https://dieberater.com/>

