

NAVY BLUES | AISHA BADRU

SONGTEXT

You kicked me down
I got back up now
These scars I wear are fading
You came around just to mess up now
I see right through your game
Your pretentious love will gain

You always came in the night
I didn't meet lies
You had your armor on
You had your armor on
I had none
But when you came with the light
You were just in time
Had no one
Like a roadway notion
You were the only one

You had nothing to lose
And something to prove
Shook me 'til I was navy blue
Some mess I shined
You unveiled your disguise
Now I'm here left in navy blue

Was it your intent to be the last man standing?
Now I see why you took me high
You just flew me up to practice a crash landing
I fell right on my face
Your infectious love charade

You only came in the night
I should've realized you had your armor...
