President's Report:

Hi All

Thanks Dan!! Back into another lockdown meant we were back on the zoom meetings, but thankfully only for one week. Sorry to those who couldn't get on for one reason or another, as we had a bit of us time just "shooting the breeze" and generally catching up with what's going on in our lives at the moment. We are all looking forward to getting back to The International this week though.

We have Crackers talking to us this week about his new career path in Workplace safety, which is obviously a huge growth industry.

We have some very exciting news for all those who attend on Wednesday, cant say to much, you'll just have to be there.

Cheers

Shane

From Last Last Meeting: Guest Speaker: Ian Stapleton

Thanks to Ian for speaking and going into quite a bit of detail regarding his love of drones.

Surprised he can keep his feet on the ground! In saying that I think Ian has sparked quite a lot of interest in the club regarding drone ownership.

Pity they can't catch Possums!

Gents with their toys!

On the Lighter Side:

My wife left me because I am insecure.

No wait, she's back.
She just went to get coffee
