

Virginia Skounti is Medsko's co-founder, Director and a Senior Consultant. She is a member of the Board of Directors since September 2017. She is serving the company as Chief Business Development Officer and she's responsible for the development and implementation of the company's initial strategy, healthcare auditing division & physician group operational excellence. She also leads the team of project managers and third-party vendors for effective healthcare project management execution.

Virginia is a Healthcare Executive with a 5+years track record of successful healthcare strategic planning, implementation & management, non-clinical operations planning, organizational structure development and healthcare setups auditing & projects' operational excellence.

Prior to becoming a Member of the Board of Directors, she served as a Member of St. George's Hospital-NHS Trust Project Management Support Team, responsible for Project Management implementation and for an effective and efficient execution of operations and service delivery.

She also served as a Customer Support, Patient Relations & Supply Chain Team Leader at Laservision.gr Institute for Ophthalmic Laser Applications, managed head office stakeholders and exchanged day-by-day info with Ministries of Health, Commerce and Medical Regulations.

She gained a tremendous experience as a Healthcare & Medical Devices Associate Project Manager/Senior Consultant while she worked at Bioscience Group across EMEA region, provided high-level client relationship management to ensure outstanding Operational Excellence.

She is proficient in Medical, Pharma and Healthcare Business Consultation, Risk management ISO 14971, Software IEC 62304, Auditing ISO 9000, ISO 13485 Healthcare Project Management, Quality Assurance and Operational Excellence.

She holds a B.Sc. degree with honor in Business Administration from the American College of Greece, Athens, GR followed by a M.Sc. degree in Health Management from City, University of London, UK.