

San Francisco Stardust

(Release: June 17th 2022)

Modest Oda

„San Francisco Stardust. I've always wondered how it feels.“

With his second single of the year 2022, Graz-based musician Modest Oda releases a melancholic, but at the same time encouraging indie pop song.

In San Francisco Stardust he metaphorically deals with the topic of growing up. It's a song about looking back on a bygone period of life and the perception and classification of the experiences of that time. The establishment of lasting friendships, as well as the permanent uncertainty of youth, with all the mistakes and stupidities.

At the same time, Modest Oda also looks ahead. The conclusion is the realization that the sum of one's own experiences and the lessons learned from them is ultimately what defines a person. A certain wistfulness felt at the beginning of the song gives way to a liberating confidence.
