

panicPROTECTOR App

We welcome you to the panicPROTECTOR App which has been designed to provide you with customized features that may assist you during a panic attack. By downloading, accessing, or utilizing the panicPROTECTOR App (the "App") or any of its associated mobile applications for Android (collectively known as the "Services"), you agree to be legally tied to these Terms of Service (the "Terms") and the Privacy Policy.

panicPROTECTOR respects your privacy and anonymity when using the application, as detailed in the PRIVACY POLICY.

IMPORTANT NOTE: NO MEDICAL ADVICE

The Services are intended to improve your well-being and to help you enjoy your daily life again. However, the Services are not a medical product or device and do not replace diagnosis and therapy of anxiety disorders through a professional healthcare provider. If you have a pre-existing medical condition, we recommend you consult with your trusted medical advisor prior to using our Services. The Services use is at your own risk and you should always use good judgement and common sense.

We are not liable or responsible for any actions taken as a result of accessing, reading, or interpreting any advice or other materials included in our Services. In particular, to the fullest extent permitted by law, we give no representation or warranties about the accuracy, completeness, or suitability for any purpose of the advice or other materials and information published on or through the Services.

If you receive advice from a doctor or other qualified medical professional which conflicts with anything contained in the Services, then the former should take precedence. Never disregard professional medical advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read through our Services.

IF AT ANY TIME DURING THE USE OF OUR SERVICES YOU EXPERIENCE A MEDICAL EMERGENCY OR ANY DISCOMFORT, IMMEDIATELY DISCONTINUE THE USE OF OUR SERVICES AND CALL YOUR LOCAL MEDICAL EMERGENCY NUMBER.

I. PRIVACY POLICY

panicPROTECTOR respects your privacy and anonymity when using the App. However, since the App is placed at Google Play, we will process some minimum personal data to the extent necessary to provide the Services.

Data categories: panicPROTECTOR App collects device data and usage data but no personal sign-up and login is necessary for the App performance. This means you do not have to reveal your identity (name, last name, email, etc.) to use the App. The App does not process any data concerning your health. When accessing and using our App, it will require permission to access to use the camera and microphone of your device to function properly. However, no information obtained by accessing your camera or microphone (regardless of its qualification as personal data or not) will be stored, processed, communicated, transferred, or sold.

The App does use third party services, such as Google Play Services which collect information used to identify you that they share with us (postcode and information about your form of payment) for the purposes of processing your transactions or provisioning content to you. Additionally, Google Play also shares with us device information and when the device has accessed our systems, in-store user activities, user info (such as registered country and language preference) and user-triggered events (such as installs, updates, uninstalls and purchases) subscription initiation and state, user ratings and reviews, app usage (such as app opens, and other developer-nominated events), app technical performance data (such as crashes, stack-traces, apps size, security vulnerabilities). Please check the Google Payments Privacy Notice for further information.

Data controller: your data will be controlled by femeninAPP LLC (panicPROTECTOR).

Purposes: to deliver our Services, maintain and improve them as well as their safety and reliability. Also, to provide you with alerts, special offers, newsletters, invitations, and other information about products, events, services, and topics that may be of your interest, if you authorize us to do so.

Legal basis for processing: panicPROTECTOR is able to process your personal identification data as a consequence of the execution of these Terms. In addition, panicPROTECTOR is able to process your personal data in order to provide you with electronic communications outside of those included in the Services, based on your consent to receive these communications. You may withdraw your consent at any time as long as the communications are not essential to the Services delivery.

Storage period: your data will be processed while you are user of the Services. If you decide to uninstall the App, we will store your data for six months, unless storage is required by applicable legal law for an extended period. Once this period has expired, we will remove your data.

Communication and transfer of data: panicPROTECTOR may share your data as follows:

- With your consent or by your choice. For example, you may use integrated tools we provide via our Services to share actions you take on our Services with third party social media services or other channels.
- Between and among companies under common control and ownership (e.g., current and future parents, subsidiaries, affiliates).
- With companies and contractors that we engage to perform services for us (e.g., email service providers, payment processors, and other service providers)
- In case we are obligated by law, we may share your personal data with law enforcement or governmental entities.

If any data is communicated or transferred, panicPROTECTOR will make its best efforts to ensure the communication or transfer is made securely.

Children: any person under 13 is not permitted to download, install, access, or use the App. If you have any reason to believe that a child under the minimum age of consent in your jurisdiction has downloaded, installed, accessed, or used the Services, please contact us and we will make our best efforts to stop and prevent any unauthorized use.

Purchase process: the App is available at Google Play, and its purchase is regulated by the Google Play Terms of Service and the policies that Google determines at any time, which are not under control of panicPROTECTOR. Google Play Service may collect information used to identify you, that they share with us, for the purposes of processing your transactions or provisioning content to you. In this regard, please read carefully the Google Payments Privacy Notice.

Third-Party Services: panicPROTECTOR may feature or allow linking or other access to or use of third-party content, promotions, websites, apps, services, and resources (collectively "Third-Party Services") that are not under panicPROTECTOR's control. This could include the ability for you to link panicPROTECTOR Services with Third-Party Services. These links are present as a convenience to you and we are not held responsible for the featured products, services, or any other content provided by Third-Party Services. Therefore, you concur that any Third-Party Services that you opt to use in connection with the panicPROTECTOR Services, such as third-party applications accessed on panicPROTECTOR devices, are not associates of the panicPROTECTOR Services and are not managed by panicPROTECTOR. By using such Services, you take full responsibility and assume all risks that arise from your interaction with or use of any Third-Party Services. You are also aware and accept that the panicPROTECTOR Privacy Policy does not apply to any Third-Party Services. Furthermore, you are responsible for fully reading and comprehending the privacy policies that apply to the usage of any Third-Party Services.

User rights: you may exercise your rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, consent withdraw and portability by writing to panicPROTECTOR at femeninAPP; Buergerwehrstrasse 13; 79102 Freiburg; Germany or by e-mail app@panicprotector.com In both cases you must attach a copy of your national ID or passport. We inform you that you have the right to file a complaint with the Data Protection Authority of your country https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/board/members en.

However, we would appreciate whether you give us the opportunity to manage your concerns at app@panicprotector.com

We maintain the right to make changes, modify, update or replace the Privacy Policy at any time. We will duly inform you if any change is made. The ongoing use of the Services following the announcement of any alterations or updates to the above policies will constitute acknowledgment and acceptance of the revised policies specified as of the effective date. In the event that the modifications affect the App operation and/or its functionalities or affect the processing of user data in a substantial manner, explicit acceptance will be requested in order to continue using the Services. The effective date of this Policy Privacy is January 1st, 2021. If you have any question or concern, please contact app@panicprotector.com

I hereby declare that:
