

Solidarity out of the Crisis We're asking you!

Democra-table -

A dedicated space for your suggestions, criticisms, and ideas for a collaborative way out of the crisis. March 12, 2022 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the 'Big Round Table' on the Neumarkt. People from the initiative will be there to talk and answer questions.

Cards - in many languages and pens will be at the tables, so that you can anonymously write down your worries, criticism, suggestions and put them in the collection box.

Between -

12.3 and 31.3.22 Democra-table spaces will be open in different districts. They will be set up at the locations of participating groups, clubs, etc. to make this opportunity to contribute and fill out cards available to all. A list of locations can be found on the website. After April 1st, 2022, the members of the initiative will collect and read all cards and sort them according to content.

What's next?

Together we will discuss how your concerns, suggestions and ideas can be solved or implemented, e.g. in panel discussions, other thematic round tables or by passing on criticism and problems to those responsible. This process can also be followed on the initiative's website, where you can stay updated about the current situation.

Ask us! -

Questions are always welcome! Explore our website for more information or to contact us.

Website: <https://solidarischausderkrise.de>