

Charlotte Nordin has been working with raw clay, music and performance over the past years. She is exploring these fields individually and assembling them here at Rund um Keramik. Her works find their roots in the artist's perception of the world, the nature and of the universe. It is an ode to creation from source to matter. Matter transforms to sound when Charlotte performs in her installations.

