Minister's Message

Dear Members & Friends,

How do we explain when we take refuge in the Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha? The Buddha has the loving kindness and compassion of a parent and the wisdom of a teacher. These virtues alleviate the suffering of the world. When we rely upon the Buddha it means we accept the foundation of the Buddha's teachings and follow the path that has been shared to us with our community we build together. The three treasures of Buddhism are the Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha. Another way you can look Buddhism is that our parents and teachers, the teachings that lead our lives and our family and friends that support us. They are the base of which we cultivate our mental, physical, and spiritual selves. Taking refuge in the three treasures is like paving a road. We lay out the foundation and through the knowledge and wisdom of the Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha. We can also share this paved road so others and ourselves can effortlessly walk the path together to enlightenment.

Join us for our Sunday Service on August 14th at 8 AM and our OBetsuji service on August 17th at 5 PM. Sunday Service will be available on Zoom and at Wailuku Jodo Mission. Please invite your family and friends as we hope to share the teachings of the Buddha and develop and cultivate the Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha in our everyday lives.

In Memory of Masao Shimizu

Our close friend Masao Shimizu passed away peacefully at his home on July 11, 2022. Masa as you may have known him, was a kind and caring man. He was gentle, soft spoken, hardworking, skillful and always a friend you could count on. His selflessness and devotion to family, friends, and the temple was all throughout his life. He is resting in the Pure Land west where the sun sets. When you see a beautiful sunset take a moment in your day and call upon Amida Buddha in memory of Masa. Namu Amida Butsu, Namu Amida Butsu, Namu Amida Butsu. May the compassionate light of Amida Buddha shine upon you always. Funeral to be held on August 20th at 11 AM at Kahului Jodo Mission.
