When U.S. exchanges are open, any quotes (other than those obtained through the real-time quote services available to users of certain Services) are delayed. When U.S. exchanges are not open, quotes are only current as of the close of the last day of trading. Before selling or buying any investment, You should consult with a qualified broker or other financial professional to verify pricing information.

To the extent any of our Services involves a model portfolio or an actual portfolio of investments, the model's author chooses such portfolio of investments is in accordance with that author's stated investment strategy. Your actual results may differ from results reported for the portfolio for many reasons, including, without limitation:

performance results for the portfolio do not reflect actual trading commissions that You may incur; performance results for the portfolio do not account for the impact, if any, of certain market factors, such as lack of liquidity, that may affect Your results;

the investments chosen for the portfolio may be volatile;

the prices of investments in the portfolio at the point in time You begin subscribing to the Premium Service may be higher than such prices at the time such investments were chosen for inclusion in the portfolio;

You may not have the capital to trade as frequently as the portfolio; the size and timing of a subscriber's purchase or sale of a stock may affect the price of the stock.
