

“This burgundy immediately stands out for its pretty floral and mineral bouquet, as well as its round, fleshy and long palate, balanced and stimulated by a fresher and more alert finish.”

“Young 15-year-old vines are at the origin of this wine of good intensity: biscuits, citrus fruits, honey touch. On the palate, we like its lively attack, its development on a measured freshness and its finish on the oyster shell. A pretty classic.”