Minister's Message

Dear Members & Friends,

Throughout the Buddhist community we have three treasures common with all Buddhist. The Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha. The teacher, the teachings, and the community. Many of us wander the world without realizing we have these jewels in our pockets throughout our lives. Sometimes it takes a moment to realize the material wealth we possess is not what makes our lives richer, but rather our family and friends and the knowledge and wisdom we acquire throughout our lives.

When the day ends and we are able to rest, call upon Amida Buddha name to express your gratitude for the day. Once, thrice, or ten times before sleeping, it is a way to appreciate the three treasures of Buddhism and reflect on one's life. On October 2nd we will be holding our tri-temple gathering at Wailuku Jodo Mission at 9 AM. There will be a service and a luncheon followed by musical performance by Masako and Nobu Yoshida and bingo. We hope to see you there.

Don't forget we will not have service on the 2nd Sunday as we will have our tri-temple service instead on Oct 2nd. Service will be available on Zoom. Please invite your family and friends as we hope to share the teachings of the Buddha and grow our Sangha.

OBETSUJI OJUYA HOYO (TEN NIGHT CHANTING SERVICE)

In Japan in the early fifteenth century in Kyoto they would have a chanting retreat that took place for over a period of ten days and ten nights. Based on the Sutra of the Buddha of Immeasurable Life (Muryoju-kyo). In Hawaii we observe O-juya in a one-day service called Nenbutsu day Service. On October 26th we will chant Amida Buddha's name by hitting the fish drum and observing this special practice from 5 – 6 PM. Join us for an evening of meditation and chanting.

Pictures from the Wailuku Jodo Mission Tea Ceremony and Workshop

Twenty-four people attended the Wailuku Jodo Mission Tea Ceremony on Sept 25th. Each attendee had the chance to make their own tea and view the art of tea making by Chado Maui Urasenke Tea Group. They have started again to practice twice a month in Puunene Nichiren Mission. If you are interested in learning more about the art of tea, please contact Sachi Lane at 808-283-6066 or Bruce Purvis 808-250-0530.
