Scholarly Reviews

The New York Review of Books

- ❖ Ethiopia and the World, 500–1530, co-authored with Dr Yonatan Binyam, UCLA, under contract with Cambridge University Press for their Global Middle Ages Series (eds. Geraldine Heng and Susan Noakes), to be published in Oct 2022.

A handbook conceived as an accessible introduction for non-specialist historians and other interested readers to the history the Ethiopian-Eritrean highland plateau between 500–1530 CE.

- ❖ Africa Collecting Europe: Patronage, Religious Material Culture and the Assertion of Local Power in Ethiopia, 1470–1530, prospectus under review with the University of Pennsylvania Press, Oct 2021.

This monograph expands on the topics first explored in Medieval Ethiopian Kingship. It mines the object histories of dozens of diptychs and triptychs painted in Solomonic Ethiopia, imported icons and even commissions from the Eastern Mediterranean, Flanders, Germany, Northern Italy, and France to tell a larger story about the dispersal and assertion of power in an African Christian kingdom at the turn of the 16th century.
