One Technician for Event

This equipment will remain the standard set for the duration of the conference. If you require additional equipment for your event, Projection AV will provide this equipment for you and you will be responsible for the additional costs. Any additional equipment must be removed after your event. Additionally, you have the option to utilize additional technical support for your event at your cost.

A Projection AV representative will be in contact with the organizer for specific production information and will provide quotes as necessary. If you have any inquiries, please contact Jonathan Cruz:
