President's Report:

Great energy in the room at last week's meeting with John Billing returning as a visitor and Derek Bignell along for a first visit. Assistant DG Sjaak was also along for the ride.

Matt and Roslyn from the Economic Development Team at Frankston Council gave an interesting insight to current programs aimed at increasing the attractiveness of Frankston for business investment. This is extremely important work as it aims to build local employment opportunities for the region.

It was also great to be able to announce our President-elect for the 2020-2021 Rotary year. Shane Thomas will be returning to the chair for his 2nd stint as President, his last being back in 2011-12. Shane is a massive contributor to the success of Frankston Sunrise, right back to the club's inception almost 30 years ago. Congratulations and a huge thank you to Shane for stepping up again.

The other exciting news is that we have confirmed that we will be launching an Interact Club at Frankston High early in the 2020 school year. A joint project between Sunrise and Peninsula Rotaract, this will be an important ongoing project for the Club. There is an article later in this bulletin that tells you a little more about Interact and what lies ahead.

There is a quite packed agenda coming up for the club over the balance of this year. In this issue of Sunrise Times, we have a focus on the Finance & Fundraising Committee. There are a number of important projects coming up. Be sure to put them in your diaries and are discussing with the project leader just how you can get involved and contribute. In future issues of Sunrise Times, we will highlight the programs of other committees.

Finally, a special shout out to John Tenison-Woods who has now moved into St Paul's Terrace in Frankston South. Don't forget, he loves visitors!

We Are Launching An Interact Club

Early 2020, in a joint venture between Rotary Frankston Sunrise and Peninsula Rotaract, we will launch an Interact Club at Frankston High School!

So what is Interact?

Interact is a key part of Rotary's Youth Programs and is a service club for youth aged 13-18 who want to engage in community service while having fun. There are more than 20,000 Interact Clubs operating in 159 countries around the world.

Students design and implement two projects each year: one for their school or local community, and one that promotes international understanding.

The students run the Club and will make their own decisions as to the projects they undertake. As sponsors of the club, Rotary and Rotaract will act as mentors. The Interact Club will meet 2 lunch times per month at meetings attended by a Rotarian & Rotaract mentor.

For the students, this is a great opportunity to make a difference both locally and internationally. They will develop leadership and organisational skills. They will have the ability to connect with the Rotary & Rotaract network around the world and to engage with Interact Clubs across the globe. It will expand their understanding of issues here and abroad and dovetails in well with the school's overall leadership development agenda. The enthusiastic response received from Frankston High and Principal John Albiston bodes well for the future of Interact at the school.

For the Rotaract Club, it continues to support their own development as community leaders and introduces them and engages them with prospective future Rotaractors. For us at Rotary Frankston Sunrise, it is a great opportunity to engage with emerging young people in the area. It opens a connection with the broader school community and extends our impact both here and abroad.

So preparations for the launch are underway, with an announcement to be made to the students at key assemblies on November 28. The formal launch of the club will happen in late February, early March 2020.

If you would like to get involved, speak to Peter Cracknell!

 Bendigo Bank

The Rotary Clubs of Australia

The combined Rotary Districts of Australia have coordinated a 2019 National Fundraiser to provide much needed incremental funds from the public and Corporates around Australia. This should not be confused with RAWCS who are distributing Government Funds. The 2019 National Fundraiser will be an incredible Public Relations opportunity for our membership and Clubs.

The public and Corporate funds will be managed by the DGs via an Appeal Distribution Committee. Rotary Districts in drought affected areas will work with Clubs to identify persons / families in need of assistance; such as food, education supplies, health services, clothing etc. The Districts will compile a Register of persons/families in need of assistance. Each District will then request a block grant via the Bendigo Bank on-line portal which will be processed by a Grants Advisory Committee. Our D9820 Governor Adrian Froggatt is a member of the Appeal Distribution Committee.

Our partners include:

Great Northern Brewing Company
Rotary Districts and clubs in Australia
Channel 9 -Today show
Bendigo Bank

Great Northern Brewing Company has agreed to donate $150K plus 1000 barrels of Great Northern Brew which, once sold by their publicans, will convert to around an additional $900K. Their Let it Pour weekend has been held 26-27 October. To find the participating Victorian Hotels go to <https://www.letitpour.com.au/> and filter on Victoria. You can even make a donation while there.

Channel 9's Today Show has commenced their advertising and promotion with live crosses to Rotary BBQs around the country. The townships with the live crosses will include Murray Bridge (SA), Warren (NSW), Tenterfield (NSW), Goondiwindi (QLD) and Stanthorpe (QLD). And as they did last year, I am sure they will help us obtain a great deal of Corporate and public support by way of cash and donations in kind.

The entire Bendigo Bank network have joined in and will display images of the appeal and will assist in taking in-Branch and online donations. Please see attached marketing material. Additional information for the public on how grants can be accessed, FAQs, how Corporates can donate will be managed by the Bendigo Bank's Community Enterprise Foundation Team, who will also be ensuring every donor gets an automated tax-deductible receipt. Bendigo Bank and their 540 branches will be taking donations directly and online.

It would be a great public image and marketing campaign for Rotary around Australia to join in with the supporting Publicans and every Bendigo Bank Branch to run a Social Event with all the proceeds going to the National appeal. Imagine the Social Media and the new friends we can make whilst supporting our drought ravaged farming families!

Donations can be made at www.bendigobank.com.au/rotarydrought or via the Let it Pour link shown above.

You will agree that having 540 Bendigo Bank branches, 1000 or so pubs/clubs and Channel 9 involved will be a great promotion for the Drought Fundraiser and Rotary. We represent the community. We represent Rotary in Australia.

Channel 9, District 9820, Bendigo Bank and the Rotary Australia Zone web sites will carry updates and coverage of the appeal through Social Media. Carlton and United, who is the parent company of Great Northern Brewing, has also given us access to their Brisbane –based PR firm, Sequel, to assist us at no cost to Rotary.

Obviously this has taken a lot of effort to pull together and our thanks should go to all those involved from all over Australia for supporting the development. Particular thanks must go to D9800 DGE Philip Archer and D9810 for their efforts in developing this 2019 Drought appeal.
