

I'm not robot  reCAPTCHA

I am not robot!

The things they carried character chart

The things they carried character chart and critical thinking questions. The things they carried character chart pdf. The things they carried character chart answers. Who are the main characters in the things they carried. The things they carried character chart quizlet. List of the things they carried by character.

Accuses Dave Jensen of being crazy for breaking his own nose to make them "square" after Jensen shattered Strunk's nose. Becomes close with Jensen soon after and signs a pact that promises one will kill the other if either of them is wounded enough in battle that they are wheelchair bound. joivjeayamoc Strunk dies in a medic chopper after most of his right leg is blown off. llacungunungun Before leaving, he begs Jensen not to kill him. Minor Characters Tim O'Brien The author and frequent protagonist of The Things They Carried. The collection serves as an account of his and his squad mates experiences as a soldier before, during, and after the Vietnam War. Kiowa Tim O'Brien's best friend in the war. Kiowa is Native American, and known for carrying around a copy of the New Testament with him in his rucksack. He dies under heavy mortar fire and is buried under what the platoon calls a "shit field." Mitchell Sanders Known for telling stories throughout the war. He believes there's a correct way to tell war stories, but often insists there is no meaning to them whatsoever. Bob "Rat" Kiley The medic of Alpha Company. He is well respected for his ability to treat wounded men incredibly well under pressure. He eventually loses his composure in the war, and intentionally shoots off his own toe so that he must be forced out of combat. Henry Dobbins A simple man. He admits to not being that smart, and relies on a pair of stockings that belonged to his girlfriend to keep him safe in combat. He ritualistically wraps them around his neck before dangerous missions, and manages to leave the war without a scratch. Ted Lavender The first to die in Alpha Company. He took lots of tranquilizers to quell his constant terror over being at war, and carried extra ammunition. He was shot in the head while returning from a pee break. Azar An often ruthless and unlikeable member of the Alpha Company who enjoys wreaking havoc. He blows up Ted Lavender's puppy. Azar helps pull Kiowa's body out of the muck. Kathleen Tim O'Brien's daughter. She constantly questions why her father insists on writing so many war stories. She joins him on a trip to Vietnam where they revisit the fields where Kiowa died. Curt Lemon Known for hyper-masculine behavior and dangerous antics. He enjoys combat but is terrified of dentists. When the Army dentist touches him, he faints. Later he demands the dentist pull out a healthy tooth. Lemon dies after stepping on a rigged mortar round. Mark Fossie A medic who was once stationed with Rat Kiley. He sneaks his girlfriend, Mary Anne Bell, into his post in Vietnam. fojugo Mary Anne Bell The former girlfriend of Mark Fossie. She arrives in Vietnam wide-eyed and innocent, but transforms from a spectator to a fighter. Fossie is devastated by her abandonment when she chooses the war over him. Eddie Diamond Fossie's superior at the post. The first to jokingly suggest that the area is so peaceful a girl could be snuck in. Fossie takes the joke seriously and sneaks in his then-girlfriend Mary Anne Bell. vilazahufukulu The Greenies (6 Green Berets) The men that Mary Anne Bell disappear with to be a part of the combat.

Sally Kramer/Gustafson Norman Bowker's former girlfriend, who is married when he returns from the war. Max Arnold Norman Bowker's childhood friend. Billie O'Brien's girlfriend in the picture that he was showing Kiowa right before Kiowa died. Bobby Jorgenson The replacement medic for Rat Kiley. He is so scared of combat that he screws up the treatment when O'Brien is shot for the second time, and O'Brien nearly dies for it. Morty Phillips The one who everyone says used up his luck after he disappeared for a day to go swimming in a river where the territory was hostile. He survives the swim, but because he drank some of the polluted river water he gets incredibly sick and dies. Linda O'Brien's sweetheart as a child. She dies of a brain tumor when she's nine years old. Nick Veenhof A boy who mocks Linda's cap in the classroom and rips it off—revealing the stitches in her head. From this, O'Brien learns that Linda has a brain tumor. LZ Gator An American soldier who got into a fight with two of his comrades, Lee Strunk and Dave Jensen, over a jackknife in the story "Enemies." The character of Tim is the protagonist of The Things They Carried. His quest to understand how fighting in the Vietnam War changed him and the other men in his platoon is the driving force in the book. Tim tells stories from multiple viewpoints, examining them for truth and meaning, trying to pull them away from the meaninglessness of the war. At the beginning of the novel, Tim is one member of a platoon left reeling after Ted Lavender is killed. By the end, it is 20-some years later, and he is able to reflect on Ted and the other men he saw killed. Telling their stories has helped him make peace with the ghosts of the war, and to honor them. The other men who survived, such as Lt. Cross, are also grateful for the chance to reflect and to have their stories told. Did you know you can highlight text to take a note? x The Things They Carried is a collection of short stories by Tim O'Brien that was first published in 1990. Read key facts, the full book summary, and important quotes.

ANATOMY OF A SOLDIER

The Things They Carried

Author: Tim O'Brien | Year Published: 1990 | Original Language: English

They Carried Gravity
The Things They Carried opens by listing the gear and necessities carried by a group of soldiers in the Vietnam War, but the ultimate emphasis is on emotional burdens.

Personal
Photographs
USO stationery
Tobacco

Environment
Disease
Insects
Stink of decay

Necessities
P-38 can opener
Pocket knife
Gum
Heat tabs
Salt tablets
Kool-Aid packets
Lighters

Other Weapons
Ammunition belt
Frag grenade

Shared
P8C-77 scrambler radio
Mine detector

Medical
Medical supplies
Tranquilizers/dope

Main Characters

Tim O'Brien
20 years after he was drafted into the Vietnam War, Tim O'Brien published The Things They Carried. The vividness of his experiences shaped his stories, in which he appears as a character and narrator.

Kiowa
The best-loved member of the platoon, and often its moral compass.

Mitchell Sanders
The radio officer, a voice of experience and wisdom.

Bob "Rat" Kiley
A medic and storyteller; shoots himself in the foot to escape the death around him.

Norman Bowker
A soldier plagued by guilt and an inability to forgive himself even after he returned home.

Jimmy Cross
The 1st Lieutenant, who struggles to lead and retreats into fantasies of home.

Motifs

Guilt
The oppressive, lasting weight of guilt haunts O'Brien's stories.

Lost Innocence
The brutal, abrupt disillusionment of war is described as one of its worst tragedies.

Love
O'Brien explores the many faces of love in war: for friends, platoon, sweethearts, and country.

Storytelling
The stories reflect on the power of storytelling to preserve memories, cope with trauma, learn to forgive, and offer solace for introspection.

They carried the land itself—Vietnam, the place, the soil...The whole atmosphere, they carried it, the humidity, the monsoons, the stink of fungus and decay, all of it, they carried gravity.

Chapter 1: The Things They Carried

Source: American Business Institute, National Archives, NYU, The New York Times, National Vietnam Veterans Readjustment Center, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Copyright © 2016 Course Hero, Inc.

The collection serves as an account of his and his squad mates experiences as a soldier before, during, and after the Vietnam War. Kiowa Tim O'Brien's best friend in the war. Kiowa is Native American, and known for carrying around a copy of the New Testament with him in his rucksack. He dies under heavy mortar fire and is buried under what the platoon calls a "shit field." Mitchell Sanders Known for telling stories throughout the war. He believes there's a correct way to tell war stories, but often insists there is no meaning to them whatsoever. Bob "Rat" Kiley The medic of Alpha Company. He is well respected for his ability to treat wounded men incredibly well under pressure.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Close Reading Organizer - The Things They Carried

Read each story and think about which themes listed in the key apply to each story. Write the name of the theme in the box next to the story title.

Themes Key

- Survival and Death
- War and Violence
- Memory
- Responsibility and Morality
- Home and Guilt

Summary

Theme Tracker

Theme	Tracker	Your Analysis
Survival and Death
War and Violence
Memory
Responsibility and Morality
Home and Guilt

Organizer - The Things They Carried

Read each story and think about which themes listed in the key apply to each story. Write the name of the theme in the box next to the story title.

Summary

Theme Tracker

Theme	Tracker	Your Analysis
Survival and Death
War and Violence
Memory
Responsibility and Morality
Home and Guilt

Accuses Dave Jensen of being crazy for breaking his own nose to make them "square" after Jensen shattered Strunk's nose. Becomes close with Jensen soon after and signs a pact that promises one will kill the other if either of them is wounded enough in battle that they are wheelchair bound. Liza Strunk dies in a medic chopper after most of his right leg is blown off. Before leaving, he begs Jensen not to kill him. Minor Characters Tim O'Brien The author and frequent protagonist of The Things They Carried. The collection serves as an account of his and his squad mates experiences as a soldier before, during, and after the Vietnam War. Kiowa Tim O'Brien's best friend in the war. Kiowa is Native American, and known for carrying around a copy of the New Testament with him in his rucksack.

The Things They Carried

"They carried all they could bear, and then some, including a silent awe for the terrible power of the things they carried."

— Tim O'Brien, author of The Things They Carried, served in Vietnam from 1965-1970.

"For most of the soldiers, the weight of their gear, equipment, weapons and ammunition was more than half of their body weight. This is how the first soldiers got the nickname 'grunts': from grunting under the weight and fatigue that truly did topple their days."

— Excerpt from the Teacher Packet that accompanies this exhibit, available online at www.mvnm.org.

- Grunt
Ralph Sirlanni
Graphite on paper
- Fully Loaded
Michael Harac
Photograph
- Patrol
Michael Harac
Photograph
- Moving Out
Michael Harac
Photograph
- On the Road to Con Thien
Charlie Shobe
Oil on canvas
- Comic Book at the DMZ
Charlie Shobe
Oil on canvas
- Captured V.C. Flag Bravo Co.
Leszlo Kondor
Gelatin silver print
- Captured, Suspected V.C. Chief
Leszlo Kondor
Gelatin silver print
- L.R.R.P. Team Arkansas, Extraction Under Fire
Leszlo Kondor
Gelatin silver print
- Wounded Buddy, American Division
Leszlo Kondor
Gelatin silver print

Minor Characters Tim O'Brien The author and frequent protagonist of The Things They Carried. The collection serves as an account of his and his squad mates experiences as a soldier before, during, and after the Vietnam War. Kiowa Tim O'Brien's best friend in the war. Kiowa is Native American, and known for carrying around a copy of the New Testament with him in his rucksack. He dies under heavy mortar fire and is buried under what the platoon calls a "shit field." Mitchell Sanders Known for telling stories throughout the war. He believes there's a correct way to tell war stories, but often insists there is no meaning to them whatsoever. Bob "Rat" Kiley The medic of Alpha Company. He is well respected for his ability to treat wounded men incredibly well under pressure. tedufunocume He eventually loses his composure in the war, and intentionally shoots off his own toe so that he must be forced out of combat. Henry Dobbins A simple man. He admits to not being that smart, and relies on a pair of stockings that belonged to his girlfriend to keep him safe in combat. He ritually wraps them around his neck before dangerous missions, and manages to leave the war without a scratch. Ted Lavender The first to die in Alpha Company. Liza He took lots of tranquilizers to quell his constant terror over being at war, and carried extra ammunition. He was shot in the head while returning from a pee break. Azar An often ruthless and unlikeable member of the Alpha Company who enjoys wreaking havoc. He blows up Ted Lavender's puppy. Azar helps pull Kiowa's body out of the muck. Kathleen Tim O'Brien's daughter. She constantly questions why her father insists on writing so many war stories. She joins him on a trip to Vietnam where they revisit the fields where Kiowa died.

Strunk dies in a medic chopper after most of his right leg is blown off.

The Things They Carried Character Chart and Critical Thinking Questions

Record what each man in the platoon carries and what the items say about him using the chart below. The Chart does not need to be filled out in complete sentences. A couple of minutes on the chart will require blank due to a lack of information given about the character. The Readings MUST BE TYPED and uploaded in turnitin.com (after you receive the class turnitin.com information on the first day of class).

Character Name	Things Carried (Physical) (Do not write more than 15)	Things Carried Emotionally, Mentally	Details Revealed by the "Things Carried" (3-5 through chapters)	Story Apprehension Character/ Page #s
Norman Bowker
Lt Jimmy Cross
Henry Dobbins
Dave Jensen
Rat Kiley
Ted Lavender
Curt Lemon
Mitchell Sanders

Accuses Dave Jensen of being crazy for breaking his own nose to make them "square" after Jensen shattered Strunk's nose. Becomes close with Jensen soon after and signs a pact that promises one will kill the other if either of them is wounded enough in battle that they are wheelchair bound. Strunk dies in a medic chopper after most of his right leg is blown off. Before leaving, he begs Jensen not to kill him. Minor Characters Tim O'Brien The author and frequent protagonist of The Things They Carried. The collection serves as an account of his and his squad mates experiences as a soldier before, during, and after the Vietnam War. Kiowa Tim O'Brien's best friend in the war. Kiowa is Native American, and known for carrying around a copy of the New Testament with him in his rucksack. He dies under heavy mortar fire and is buried under what the platoon calls a "shit field." Mitchell Sanders Known for telling stories throughout the war. He believes there's a correct way to tell war stories, but often insists there is no meaning to them whatsoever. Bob "Rat" Kiley The medic of Alpha Company. He is well respected for his ability to treat wounded men incredibly well under pressure. tedufunocume He eventually loses his composure in the war, and intentionally shoots off his own toe so that he must be forced out of combat. Henry Dobbins A simple man. He admits to not being that smart, and relies on a pair of stockings that belonged to his girlfriend to keep him safe in combat. He ritually wraps them around his neck before dangerous missions, and manages to leave the war without a scratch. Ted Lavender The first to die in Alpha Company. He took lots of tranquilizers to quell his constant terror over being at war, and carried extra ammunition. He was shot in the head while returning from a pee break. Azar An often ruthless and unlikeable member of the Alpha Company who enjoys wreaking havoc. He blows up Ted Lavender's puppy. Azar helps pull Kiowa's body out of the muck. Kathleen Tim O'Brien's daughter. She constantly questions why her father insists on writing so many war stories. She joins him on a trip to Vietnam where they revisit the fields where Kiowa died. Curt Lemon Known for hyper-masculine behavior and dangerous antics. He enjoys combat but is terrified of dentists. When the Army dentist touches him, he faints. Later he demands the dentist pull out a healthy tooth. Lemon dies after stepping on a rigged mortar round. Mark Fossie A medic who was once stationed with Rat Kiley. xagehe He sneaks his girlfriend, Mary Anne Bell, into his post in Vietnam. Mary Anne Bell The former girlfriend of Mark Fossie. She arrives in Vietnam wide-eyed and innocent, but transforms from a spectator to a fighter. Fossie is devastated by her abandonment when she chooses the war over him. Eddie Diamond Fossie's superior at the post. The first to jokingly suggest that the area is so peaceful a girl could be snuck in. Fossie takes the joke seriously and sneaks in his then-girlfriend Mary Anne Bell. The Greenies (6 Green Berets) The men that Mary Anne Bell disappear with to be a part of the combat. Sally Kramer/Gustafson Norman Bowker's former girlfriend, who is married when he returns from the war. Max Arnold Norman Bowker's childhood friend. Billie O'Brien's girlfriend in the picture that he was showing Kiowa right before Kiowa died. Bobby Jorgenson The replacement medic for Rat Kiley. He is so scared of combat that he screws up the treatment when O'Brien is shot for the second time, and O'Brien nearly dies for it. Morty Phillips The one who everyone says used up his luck after he disappeared for a day to go swimming in a river where the territory was hostile. He survives the swim, but because he drank some of the polluted river water he gets incredibly sick and dies. Linda O'Brien's sweetheart as a child. yimo She dies of a brain tumor when she's nine years old. Nick Veenhof A boy who mocks Linda's cap in the classroom and rips it off—revealing the stitches in her head. From this, O'Brien learns that Linda has a brain tumor. mevatufini LZ Gator An American soldier who got into a fight with two of his comrades, Lee Strunk and Dave Jensen, over a jackknife in the story "Enemies." The character of Tim is the protagonist of The Things They Carried. His quest to understand how fighting in the Vietnam War changed him and the other men in his platoon is the driving force in the book. Tim tells stories from multiple viewpoints, examining them for truth and meaning, trying to pull them away from the meaninglessness of the war. At the beginning of the novel, Tim is one member of a platoon left reeling after Ted Lavender is killed. By the end, it is 20-some years later, and he is able to reflect on Ted and the other men he saw killed. Telling their stories has helped him make peace with the ghosts of the war, and to honor them. The other men who survived, such as Lt. Cross, are also grateful for the chance to reflect and to have their stories told. Did you know you can highlight text to take a note? x The Things They Carried is a collection of short stories by Tim O'Brien that was first published in 1990. Read key facts, the full book summary, and important quotes. See a complete list of the characters in The Things They Carried and in-depth analyses of Tim O'Brien, Jimmy Cross, Mitchell Sanders, Kiowa, Mary Anne Bell, Norman Bowker, and Elroy Berdahl. Here's where you'll find analysis of the literary devices in The Things They Carried, from the major themes to motifs, symbols, and more. Find the quotes you need to support your essay, or refresh your memory of The Things They Carried by reading these key quotes. Go further in your study of The Things They Carried with background information on Tim O'Brien and the book, movie adaptations, and links to resources on the web, and suggestions for further reading.