

Confidentiality statement STAH confidential counselor (10-05-2021)

I hereby declare that the content of all conversations I conduct as a confidential counselor remain confidential between me and the relevant member and that third parties have no access to it.

With the consent of the member concerned, I may pass on information to third parties (certified counselors / experts, board, a new confidential counselor).

I hereby declare that I will remain independent within STAH and help each member as best as possible within my ability / capacity / competence.

Exceptions:

1. Patterns may be passed on to the board without personal information;
2. In the event of a crime, the confidential advisor may report this.

This statement is valid until the resignation of the position of confidential counselor.
