To Whom It May Concern,

lengoo is a Techstars and VC backed startup based in Berlin. Our AI-powered online marketplace provides small and medium sized businesses frictionless access and connection to expert freelance translators on demand. Using latest Machine Learning technology, we ensure high-quality translations and an exceptional user experience for both translators and clients. Launched in 2015, our platform plays a critical role for more than 2500 companies from 10 countries in conquering international markets. Our goal is to become Europe's leading one-stop translation platform.

This letter is to certify that Katharina Eddins has been an active member of our base of linguists and editors since February 2016. During her tenure, Katharina has been a very reliable, trustworthy, and highly appreciated resource who has repeatedly proven to deliver an outstanding quality of work for our clients.

Her work for lengoo included:

Business Translations and Proofreading

Language Pairs: English (all language variants) -> German
 German -> English (all language variants)

Areas of Expertise: Social Sciences, History, Cosmetics, Arts, Travel & Leisure

Since February 2016, Katharina has taken over 130 jobs as a freelance translator and editor for lengoo. She has translated documents with a total volume of approximately 150,000 words and proofread documents with a total volume of approximately 30,000 words.

96% of all her translations performed for lengoo have been rated positively by the proof reader.

Katharina's contribution as a freelance translator and proof reader has been highly appreciated, and we look forward to continuing our cooperation with her. We would have no hesitation in recommending her for any localization project.

Regards
