The aim of the internship was to assist the MD of our company, both in internal and external projects.

Throughout the duration of the work placement, Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth performed a variety of different tasks. Thereby he gained an insight into the various fields of activity of logistics consulting.

Specifically, Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth was entrusted with the following tasks:

- Support and refine a contract logistics tender for a manufacturer of transmissions: Creation of tender documents, evaluation of service provider's offers
- Organization of various travel costs; assistance in preparing project documents and research material; creating and maintaining PPT slides and Excel spreadsheets
- Translation of vendor agreements and purchasing orders in German, English and Chinese
- Run general industry related errands and attend company functions and networking events

After a short introductory consultation and specification of the expected results, all stated activities were processed very independently and with very great personal commitment and professionalism by Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth.

Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth was always motivated to take on new tasks to obtain a broad overview on several project contents.

Through his quick intellectual grasp Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth was able to be quickly integrated into entrusted tasks and gave very valuable input to support our team.

Overall Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth performed all tasks always to our complete satisfaction.

His pleasant and binding nature towards superiors, colleagues and customers has always been very exemplary, so all employees attended him with highest esteem.

We would like to thank Mr. Leonard Wiedenroth for the excellent cooperation and wish him all the best for his future career and continued success.
