

On this page you will find more information about our

DHeLiDA Partner:

EGinA

European Grants International Academy (EGinA) was founded in 2012 in Foligno (Italy) by Fabiola Acciarri and Altheo Valentini. The agency, accredited by the Umbria Region for professional training and certification of competencies, today represents one of the main actors in the field of planning and implementation of local, national and European initiatives, relying on the collaboration of numerous experts in the fields of education, social innovation, cultural heritage and digital transformation.

<http://www.egina.eu/>

Frederick University

Frederick University Cyprus (English: Frederick University Cyprus F.U.C.) is a private university founded in 2007 in Nicosia and Limassol in the Republic of Cyprus.

The university offers 42 study programs in 15 departments at six faculties.

Faculties

- Architecture and arts
- Humanities and social sciences
- Economics
- Health sciences
- Engineering and applied natural sciences
- Educational sciences (teaching profession)

<https://www.frederick.ac.cy/>

SYSTSERV

SYSTSERV is a certified company in the fields of telemedicine and medical informatics. It was founded by researchers with experience in designing and developing telemedicine systems and services. Systserv employs engineers, medical physicists, physicians, data scientists, security experts, web designers and administrative staff.

<https://systserv.com/>

Pressure Line

Pressure Line is a creative and visual communication agency founded in 1997. Core competencies include communication and dissemination strategy development, research and marketing, corporate identity design, web design, multimedia projects, and learning materials development and design. Pressure Line works for government organizations, regional and local authorities, educational and cultural institutions, and charities.

<https://www.pressureline.nl/>