Prof. Dr. Sebastian Stöckl (University of Liechtenstein, Liechtenstein)
Prof. Dr. Sebastian Utz (University of Augsburg, Germany)
Prof. Dr. Florian Weigert (University of Neuchâtel, Switzerland)

Overview

The Alpine Finance Summit (AFS) is an exclusive and high-caliber conference devoted to the presentation and discussion of academic finance working papers.

Research Focus

The scientific focus of the conference lies on research in the areas of Asset Pricing, Investments, Sustainable Finance, Innovative Finance, and FinTech. We welcome empirical, experimental, and theoretical contributions which have not been published in a scientific journal.

Conference Date and Venue

The AFS will take place at the Park Hôtel Grenoble - MGallery (10 Place Paul Mistral, 38000 Grenoble, France), a stylish 4-star hotel directly located in downtown Grenoble from Sunday, August 24th – Tuesday, August 26th, 2025. Accommodation for all conference participants (standard or superior room) is reserved at the Park Hôtel Grenoble from Saturday, August 23rd - Tuesday, August 26th for a reduced rate of 130,- or 150,- EUR per night. Please directly book with the code: AFS2025 at the Park Hôtel Grenoble - MGallery. All participants are expected to stay for the entire conference.

The conference directly follows the 2025 European Finance Association (EFA) meeting in Paris. It is possible to reach Grenoble from Paris by train in 3:00 hours on a direct train connection.

Paper Submission

Submission Deadline: 16/03/2025 (CET, Midnight)

Submit your fully developed working paper at <https://www.conftool.com/alpinefinancesummit2025>. Selection of papers is determined via a blind-review process; hence author identities must be concealed at submission. Authors are allowed to submit more than one paper. There is a submission fee of EUR 50 per paper. Authors will be notified of the acceptance/refusal of their article until the end of April 2025.

Keynote Speaker

We are happy to announce that the keynote speech will be given by Prof. Amit Goyal, Ph.D. from the University of Lausanne and the Swiss Finance Institute.

Social Program

Similar to the vision of “winter finance conferences”, particular focus is devoted to a social program for summer outdoor activities, such as hiking and mountain biking. These activities will be organized during the conference and all conference participants are encouraged to participate. Detailed information on the social program will be provided in spring 2025.

Conference Fee

The conference fee is 370 EUR per participant. It includes:

- lunch and coffee breaks on the first conference day.
- the conference dinner on the first conference day.
- bus and mountain transportation as well as lunch on the second conference day.
- a coffee break on the third conference day
