

Tourism Naturally
Online Symposium

October 14th, 2021

Conference Programme

GMT+2

9:00 - 9:30 am	Opening Ceremony Welcome by the hosts at the European Campus Rottal-Inn together with the extended organisation team
9:30 - 10:10 am	Plenary Session Co-Creating Value through Smart Environment Dimitrios Buhalis [Bournemouth University Business School, Great Britain]
	RESILIENCE AUDITORIUM	INNOVATION HALL		VITALITY HALL		DESTINATION EARTH	SUSTAINABILITY HALL
10:10 am - 12:10 pm	Transformation Processes to more Sustainability in Tourism – Experiences from Austria and Switzerland [Christian Baumgartner, University of Applied Sciences of the Grisons, Switzerland]	Traditional knowledge in management of natural environment and tourism [Denis Tolkach, James Cook University, Australia]	10:10 - 10:50 am	Healing Alps 2 (HEALPS2) – An Interreg Alpine Space project to improve the framework conditions for nature-based health tourism [Michael Bischof]	10:10 - 11:10 am	The aesthetics and affects of cuteness: Meeting pandas and knowing the wild [Yulei Guo]	Residents' Irritation and Tourism Regulation in a Destination: Case of Český [Petr Janeček]
				Comparing the benefits of climatic stays for asthmatic people: a meta-analysis [Maurizio Droti]		Shark diving tourism in the macronesian islands: Conservation potential and challenges [Pedro Gonzales Mantilla]	Local Government's Role in Governance of Sustainable Tourism: Stakeholders' Perspective from Finland [Sanna-Mari Renfors]
						Is fear affecting tourists' preferences for wolf conservation in the Italian Alps? [Sandra Notaro]	Stimuli and obstacles to accessibility in tourism destinations from a stakeholders' perspective [Lucia Rubio Escuderos]
				Spa rehabilitation of cancer patients as a direction of development of internal medical tourism in Ukraine [Natalia Vasylieva]		Assessing the futuristic consequences of hunting ban lifting in Kasane, Botswana [Memory Mukoroverwa]	Perceptions of tourism firms on local landscape and recreation value trade model implementation [Henna Konu]
						The attitude of the locals towards tourism in Montenegin Kotor [Jasna Potocnik Topler]	Nature is in our Minds: Considerations on why Nature Tourism is on the surge [Monika Bachinger]
				Tourism and well-being: The perspective of residents of Bwindi in Uganda. [James Ssebaggala]		Thinking about regional and corporate resilience in the tourism industry: Models, empirical research and first insights by the German hotel industry. [Martin Fontanari, Anastasia Traskevich]	DMO and sustainability in the German-speaking Alpine region [Urs Wagenseil, Melanie Wyss]
						Success with heterogeneous guest segments in health and wellness businesses [Lisa Fickel, Roland Lymann]	Trekking tourism and sustainability dilemma - A case of Everest base camp [Sitaram Dahal]
				Reinventing the spa destination - The case of the Brijuni Islands National Park [Natasa Uroševic]		Evaluation of visitor guidance measures on the „Hochgehberge“ predicate hiking trails in the Swabian Alb UNESCO Biosphere Reserve [Madita Lemke]	BayernCloud Tourism - OpenData as a basis for sustainable visitor management and forecasts [Markus Garnitz]
						Fostering tourism in mountain regions through corporate heritage. A case from Italy [Concetta Ferrara]	Trail design guidelines to identify cultural landscapes along the Niagara Escarpment, Canada [Karen Landmann]
				10:50 am - 12:10 pm		Panel discussion	11:10 am - 12:10 pm
Lunch Break 12:10 - 13:00 pm

Keynote presentations last 30 minutes + 10 minutes Q&A. The presentations last 6 mins 40, followed by a panel discussion. Schedule is subject to change.

Conference Programme

GMT+2

	RESILIENCE AUDITORIUM	INNOVATION HALL
13:00 - 15:50 pm	Biometric technologies for tourism: getting insights in the field [IMotions, Software technologies for research with biometric sensors, Denmark/USA/Asia]	Relationship between forest management practices and nature-based recreation: a conceptual framework and practical applications [Alessandro Paletto, Council for Agriculture Research and Economics (CREA), Italy]
	Initiatives promoting development of the nature based services and experiences – evidence from Finland [Raija Komppula, University of Eastern Finland]	INTERREG AB291 – Forests, health and tourism. Insights from an cross-border EU-project [Sebastian Markov, European Campus Rottal-Inn, Deggendorf Institute of Technology, Germany]
	Tourism and Nature Tourism during the Pandemic [Nikolaos Pappas, University of Sunderland, Great Britain]	Tourism encounters in National Parks – social impacts of Covid19 [Iride Azara, University of Derby, Great Britain]
		Share Your Real Experience: Assessing Tourist Negative Emotions towards Authentic Food with Self Report and Physiological Response Methods [Celso Brito, Katerina Volchek, Dimitrios Athansopoulos, European Campus Rottal-Inn, Deggendorf Institute of Technology, Germany]

Break | 15:50 - 16:00 pm

16:00 - 16:30 pm	Nature-based Tourism and Wellbeing: Impacts and Future Outlook – Publication [Federico Niccolini, University of Pisa, Italy; Iride Azara, Eleni Michopoulou, University of Derby, Great Britain]
	Introduction to the International Journal of Spa and Wellness – Comments from the Editor in Chief [Eleni Michopoulou, University of Derby, Great Britain]

16:30 - 16:40

Closing the Event

Introducing the Tourism Naturally Conference 2022 @Colorado State University, USA

Farewell by the hosts at the European Campus Rottal-Inn together with the extended organisation team

